HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE SEASON

Pancake Day

There was plenty of laughter during our pancake-tossing competition, followed by a delicious selection of pancakes with a variety of toppings. Everyone enjoyed choosing their favourites alongside an afternoon cuppa.

Valentine's Day

Our residents took part in Valentine's-themed puzzles, created lovely posters to decorate the home, and enjoyed a beautiful afternoon tea together in the activities room. It was a wonderful opportunity to celebrate friendship and companionship.

Burns Supper

Our traditional Burns Supper on 25 January was a memorable occasion. We welcomed special guests to pipe in the haggis and deliver the Address to the Haggis, followed by a selection of Burns poetry and a wee dram.

The menu included smoked salmon with brown bread, followed by haggis, neeps and tatties with a whisky sauce, and finished with a delicious raspberry cranachan. Guests also enjoyed a choice of whisky or Irn-Bru.

Christmas & New Year

The festive season was filled with joy as residents and staff welcomed a visit from Santa on Christmas Eve, who delivered gifts to everyone on his nice list. In January, snowfall added a beautiful winter touch to Osprey Court, creating a picturesque setting for the start of the new year.

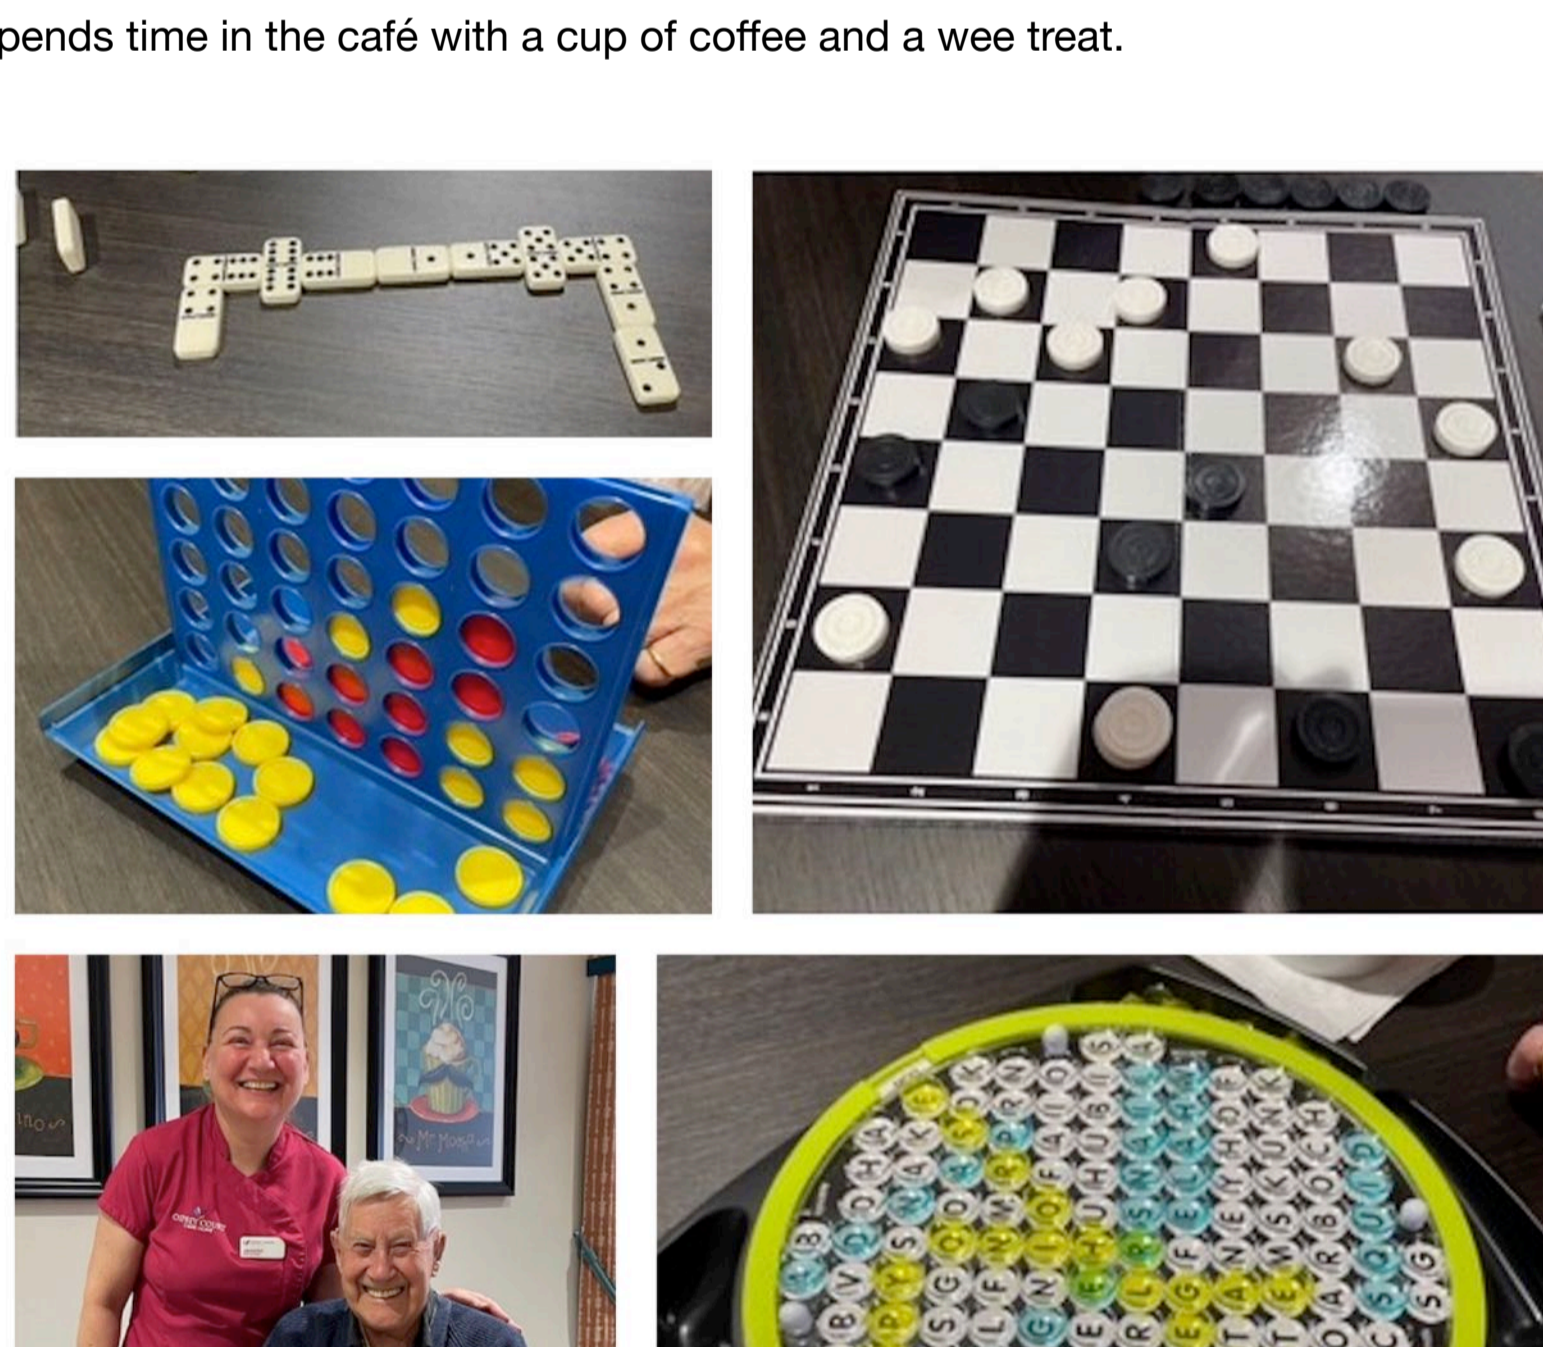

HOME NEWS

Resident Spotlight: Jen & Ray

Meet Ray, one of the first residents to move into Osprey Court. One of his favourite pastimes is beating Jen, our Activities and Wellbeing Manager, at all the games they play together each day.

Ray also enjoys the home baking prepared by our Head Chef, Sheonagh, and often spends time in the café with a cup of coffee and a wee treat.

Meet the Team

We are delighted to have opened our second community here at Osprey Court and to welcome many new members of staff. Our new nursing, care and housekeeping team members have all commented on the warm welcome they have received from residents and colleagues alike.

Staff Member of the Month

February Winner: Sheonagh (Head Chef)

We are proud to celebrate Sheonagh, who received the Outstanding Award at the CCG Awards Night held in February at the Hilton Hotel, Queensferry. This is a fantastic achievement and well deserved.
